CB RICHARD ELLIS GROUP, INC. SELECTED AS EXCLUSIVE PROVIDER OF COMPREHENSIVE REAL ESTATE SERVICES FOR MCKESSON CORP.

Dallas – November 7, 2007 — CB Richard Ellis Group, Inc. (NYSE:CBG) today announced that McKesson Corporation has again selected the firm to provide real estate services throughout North America, designating CBRE as its exclusive third party real estate provider. McKesson conducted a competitive review process before selecting CB Richard Ellis.

As part of the contract renewal, CB Richard Ellis will provide transaction management, portfolio administration, and program and project management for more than 270 properties totaling 17.5 million sq. ft. of headquarters and administrative offices, sales and marketing offices, call centers and distribution centers throughout the United States. CBRE will provide facilities management services for 51 of these locations, totaling 4.5 million sq. ft., as well as selected facilities services at additional locations totaling 2.5 million sq. ft.

The relationship with McKesson dates back five years and spans more than 250 transactions and 120 projects, including nine major build-to-suit development projects. Mike Lafitte, President of Institutional and Corporate Services with CB Richard Ellis, said, "We have been privileged to serve McKesson Corp. and are excited about this renewed commitment to our relationship. We are looking forward to providing McKesson Corp. with the benefits of our integrated services across its portfolio."

The relationship is being led by a CB Richard Ellis team that includes Mr. Lafitte; Lynn Kious, area Executive Account Leader; Tim Schroeder, newly named Alliance Director for the McKesson account; and more than 90 additional CB Richard Ellis professionals in major U.S. and Canadian markets.
