CB Richard Ellis-Phoenix Places 11 Real Estate Professionals Among Company's Top 225

Phoenix – April 8, 2008 – Eleven real estate professionals from the Phoenix office of CB Richard Ellis (CBRE) have been ranked among the company's top 225 performers nationwide.

Tom Adelson, Brad Anderson, Tyler Anderson, Bob Crum, Sean Cunningham, Jim Fijan, Bruce Francis, Mark Krison, Rocco Mandala, Jerry Roberts and John Werstler will be recognized at a national conference held April 13 -16 at the Ritz-Carlton in Cancun, Mexico.

"With more than 3,000 professionals in North America, it is a great accomplishment to be ranked among CBRE's top 225," said Craig Henig, managing director at the Phoenix office. "These professionals have worked extremely hard to grow their business, to forge and nurture relationships and become a valued partner to their clients. We couldn't be more proud of their accomplishments and successes."

Adelson, a corporate services/tenant representation specialist, and Fijan, an office specialist, were ranked among the company's top 100 professionals. This ranking earned them recognition as members of the Colbert Coldwell Circle. The duo have been members of the "Circle" for the past 20 years.

Tyler Anderson and Cunningham are specialists in multi-family property sales. They were included in the company's top 100 and also achieved recognition as members of the Colbert Coldwell Circle.

Francis and Mandala, members of the firm's debt and equity finance division (CBRE|Melody), were also ranked among the company's top 100 and earned membership into the Colbert Coldwell Circle.

Rounding out the top 225 were Brad Anderson, Crum, Krison, Roberts and Werstler. Brad Anderson and Roberts are office property specialists. Crum, Krison and Werstler each specialize in industrial properties.
