

CBRE's Statement of Standardized Operating Procedures under Section 442-h of Article 12-A Real Property Law

CBRE Policy prohibits our sales professionals from engaging in Residential Transactions except under special circumstances. CBRE has no prerequisites that prospective homebuyers must meet prior to receiving any services, including (i) whether prospective clients shall show identification; (ii) whether an exclusive broker agreement is required; and (iii) whether pre-approval for a mortgage loan is required.

Any questions regarding CBRE's Standardized Operating Procedures should be directed to CBRE Legal at jaci.reed@cbre.com.

Effective as of April 19, 2022

ACKNOWLEDGED on this 19th day of April, 2022 by the undersigned, a Notary Public in and for said State of New York, that the within instrument is CBRE's Standardized Operating Procedures pursuant to Section 442-h of Article 12-A Real Property Law as of the Effective Date noted above.
